Date: Sat, Aug 18, 2018 5:12 pm

Dear Edge Passengers:

Good news in Celebrities e-mail below for the group with their flights retuning from London to Miami on May 13th. The passengers previously booked on Delta's May 13th flight, requiring a change of planes, are now booked on BA non-stop direct Miami flight #209, scheduled departing London's LHR airport @ 1:55 PM on the 13th, arriving MIA @ 6:15 PM , with no additional cost in their Cruise air fare.

This BA direct Miami flight option previous purchased by guest with a increased fare of $70.00 per person, is no longer applicable and will not be charged. We expressed the groups appreciation to Celebrity, in making possible for all guest on May 13th Miami flights, to return together on a non-stop direct flight.

All continues to go well with your Cruise. Celebrity continues almost weekly assigning GTY passengers stateroom numbers and confirming wait-listed dining times. The next published list of passengers will contain updates of any changes made by Celebrity in a individuals accommodations.

Best Regards, The Marco Men's Club

PS: Dear Bob

Happy Thursday

I have great news . British Airways came back with a revised fare which is within the cost group passengers are paying for the air to Miami. I am able to get all the guests on the 13 May on the non-stop.

Best Regards
