Worried about her driving and aging, Louise's sons begin to curtail her driving and eventually take away her car keys. In retaliation, with a third set of keys, she takes her car on a wild journey across the country to Las Vegas.

Playwright Harriette Tax was born and raised in Chicago. As an author, playwright and retired nursing educator, Harriette lives in New York and spends winters on Marco Island. She was encouraged to write Silver Alert by her late loving partner Bob Logan and is overwhelmed with gratitude to The Marco Players for producing Silver Alert. Harriette sincerely appreciates the encouragement of her family and friends while she pursues her love for playwriting. During her time away from the theater, Harriette is committed to the Marco Island environment through her work with Friends of Tigertail and Rookery Bay.
