One of Broadway's most classic, show stopping, and beloved tales, 42nd Street is known for its breath-taking tap dancing, the flashy musical set in 1933 tells the story of Peggy Sawyer, a talented young small-town performer with stars in her eyes who gets her big break on Broadway after catching the eye of legendary Broadway director Julian Marsh. On opening night, the show's leading lady, Dorothy Brock, breaks her ankle and panic spreads through the company. The show is doomed for closure — until it is suggested that Peggy take the role. In just 36 hours, a star is born.

THERE WILL BE AN OPTIONAL GROUP DINNER at ALBERTO'S ON 5TH AFTER THE PERFORMANCE. The Cost for Alberto's is $39 PP and includes a glass of wine, first course and second course.
